CAUSE

On April 23, 2012, a report was submitted to Your Honor for the purpose of notification regarding Mr. Thompson's noncompliance with a condition of supervised release. Mr. Thompson is not to commit another Federal, state or local crime. Mr. Thompson was arrested for malicious mischief of personal property on November 13, 2011, and for violation of a no-contact order on December 22, 2011. He immediately reported the allegations to this office. No action was requested as Mr. Thompson attended his court dates, had secured approved housing, and continued to maintain employment.

On May 2, 2012, Mr. Thompson pled guilty to violation of a no-contact order, and was sentenced by Spokane Municipal Court to 90 days in jail, with credit for 2 days served and a $43 fine.

Mr. Thompson has now been released from confinement, secured approved housing and is employed full time. He has agreed to sign a modification of his conditions waiving his right to a hearing. He was informed by the undersigned officer that due to his recent arrests and conviction for domestic violence, he needs the support and assistance from a mental health counselor to redirect his noncompliant behavior. Mr. Thompson was advised that if this behavior continues, the undersigned officer will submit a violation report to the Court requesting action.

By "assistance of counsel," I understand that I have the right to be represented at the hearing by counsel of my own choosing if I am able to retain counsel. I also understand that I have the right to request the court to appoint counsel to represent me at such a hearing at no cost to myself if I am not able to retain counsel of my own choosing.

I hereby voluntarily waive my statutory right to a hearing and to assistance of counsel. I also agree to following modification of my Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release or to the proposed extension of my term of supervision:
